Underinsured or Uninsured?

A Guide to Healthcare Resources in Allegheny County

The following is a list of clinics and health centers that service people without health insurance or who are minimally insured. Most of the clinics and centers require an appointment, so a call is necessary to make an appointment and check hours of operation. Due to rising unemployment and growing numbers of people losing their health insurance, some clinics have seen increased demand, so it may take up to a month or longer to get an appointment as a new patient. To help with the process of getting reduced cost care, ask what documentation is needed to complete the application for assistance, as well as how much money is requested for the first visit. Some of the providers listed below offer assistance with behavioral health and substance abuse issues. For more comprehensive listings of resources devoted exclusively to behavioral health and substance abuse, see Resource websites at the very end.

For Information on Clinics Outside of Allegheny County

Pennsylvania Association for Community Health Centers

<http://www.pachc.com>

1-866-944-CARE (2273)

This is the state association representing medical providers such as the Federally Qualified Health Centers that receive federal money to provide services to people without health insurance or who are minimally insured. These centers and other similar providers are located in underserved areas throughout the Commonwealth. The Pennsylvania Association for Community Health Centers is in the process of updating its online directory of clinics organized by county. While that process is being completed, people can call the toll free number listed above to ask about community health centers in their area. For example, someone living in the upper northeast corner of Allegheny County, who does not have health insurance and needs non hospital care, may consider the Community Health Clinic in New Kensington, which is listed under Westmoreland County.

U. S. Department of Health and Human Services – Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA)

<http://findahealthcenter.hrsa.gov/>

HRSA maintains a national data base of the federally funded health centers around the country that provide care to individuals without health insurance. Most have sliding scale fees based on household income. To find a health center in other states, copy the the above link to your website browser or call 1-888-ASK-HRSA (275-4772).

US Department Of Veterans Affairs

VA Health System

1-800-827-1000

<http://www.va.gov/healtheligibility/>

For information about health benefits plan that emphasizes preventative and primary care for eligible veterans, call toll free number or go to their website.

Help with Medications and Prescriptions

Both nationally and locally, certain grocery stores and retail operations offer generic prescription medications at low cost (usually around $4 for a month of medication or $10 for 3 months). The medications offered under these programs can vary slightly from one company to another. It may be necessary to scrutinize each of the following programs to locate a particular drug. Usually there are no income guidelines or restrictions regarding insurance coverage.

Giant Eagle

<http://www.gianteagle.com/>

This program requires a Giant Eagle Advantage card, completed enrollment form and prescriptions. For more information about the program and locations, go to the link to their website. Or check with your local Giant Eagle to see if they are participating in this program.

Kmart

<https://pharmacy.kmartcorp.com/index.jsp>

Selected Kmart stores have pharmacies. Kmart Pharmacy offers a 90-day supply of certain generic medications for $15. Kmart Pharmacy will also beat any local competitor's price for prescriptions. To find a Kmart store with a pharmacy, call 1-800-866-0086 or to see the list of 90 day generic medications go to their website.

Target

http://sites.target.com/images/pharmacy/pharmacy_4dollar_program_list.pdf

Target offers a national program of certain generic medications at $4 per month for each prescription. Check with your local Target pharmacy to see how to participate or go to their website for the list of medications.

Wal-Mart

<http://www.walmart.com/catalog/catalog.gsp?cat=546834&fromPageCatId=5431>

Wal-Mart pharmacy also offers many generic drugs at $4 a month. Their list of medications is similar to Giant Eagle and Target, but they may have some medications that Giant Eagle and Target do not provide in their low cost generic drug programs. Check with your local Wal-Mart or go to their website.

RxAssist

For help go to www.rxassist.org

This website is operated by a nonprofit resource center and is free of ads unlike the NeedyMeds site below. RxAssist offers a comprehensive listing of all pharmaceutical patient assistance programs which is searchable by both drug name and company name. There is useful information about eligibility criteria, delivery times and refill policies.

Rx Outreach

Discount mail order prescription service that provides FDA approved generic medications for asthma, blood pressure, diabetes, heart disease and other health conditions for individuals or families up to 300% of Federal Poverty Level and no exclusion for those enrolled in other discount prescription plans. No cost to join program and no contracts. Prices vary, but may be as low as $20 for a six-month supply (180 days). Application must be completed, along with prescription and credit card information, check or money order. Application and the list of covered medications can be found at <http://www.rxoutreach.com/> or call 1-800-769-3880

NeedyMeds

This is a national web-based clearinghouse of information about various pharmaceutical patient assistance programs, state and local prescription assistance programs and disease specific programs. A good place to research what is available. For help, go to: <http://www.needymeds.com/> or contact them at NeedyMeds, P.O. Box 219, Gloucester, MA 01931.

Pennsylvania Patient Assistance Program (PAP)

This is a state program under the Pennsylvania Department of Aging that helps people navigate the various pharmaceutical assistance programs. To qualify you must be a Pennsylvania resident between the ages of 18 to 64 and have no prescription coverage. The staff assists clients with the application process and the required documentation needed to establish financial and medical eligibility for the appropriate pharmaceutical assistance program. Call 1-800-955-0989 and leave your name and phone number. A program representative will call back to assess eligibility and begin the enrollment process.

Partnership for Prescription Assistance Pennsylvania (PPARxPA)

PPARxPA is a program that connects qualified, low-income people with discount prescription drugs, direct from the pharmaceutical manufacturer. For more information, go to: <http://www.pparxpa.org/who/> or call their toll free phone number 1-888-477-2669

Discount Drug Cards

These cards might be an option for those who do not qualify for pharmaceutical patient assistance programs. The savings on particular medications and supplies and which pharmacies participate can vary with these cards, so it may be necessary to look at each card to find the one that is most worthwhile.

Familywise

Discount prescription card with no membership fee or eligibility requirements. For more information and to print a membership card, go to www.familywise.org or call United Way of Allegheny County at 412-255-1155 to request a card.

Pennsylvania Drug Card

Free discount prescription card with no membership or income requirements. The card is available at www.padrugcard.com If unable to print a card from the website, pharmacies at Target, Giant Eagle and Kmart can process prescriptions through the program.

Together Rx Access

Discount prescription card with no fee or membership costs. Eligibility criteria:

1. Legal resident of US or Puerto Rico.
2. Not eligible for Medicare.
3. No prescription coverage.
4. Meet income guidelines.

For more information about the program visit: <http://www.togetherrxaccess.com/> or call 1-800-444-4106

Low cost diabetic insulin syringes

Care Mark is a distributor for BD (Becton Dickinson) insulin syringes. They have a patient assistance program for low income individuals without health insurance. Necessary documentation includes a copy of the latest tax return and a current prescription from a medical provider. If eligibility requirements are met, a 90 day supply of insulin syringes is $15. To find out more about the program, income guidelines, how to apply and required documentation, call: 1-866-818-6906

Low cost diabetes testing supplies

Abbott has two programs. The first one is the FreeStyle Promise membership program. This is a free program that provides a blood glucose meter, support services and a membership card that may reduce the co-pay for testing strips to as low as $15 for a month's supply. Anyone with diabetes (even with health insurance coverage) can call 1-866-246-2683 for more details.

The second program is a patient assistance program for low income people who have been denied Medical Assistance and have no health insurance that covers diabetes testing supplies. The applicant must call for a prescreening and then an application will be sent. The completed application must be returned along with a doctor's note about frequency for blood glucose testing, proof of income and a denial letter from Medicaid. Call 1-800-222-6885 then press 7 for diabetes care products. A meter, testing strips and lancets are provided for one year for persons who meet the eligibility criteria.

Dental Care

Some of the clinics listed above do have dental services, either on site or by referral. Not all of them do, so an inquiry should be made. Other resources include,

Health Insurance Options

Medical Assistance

Some of the clinics listed in this guide will help with an application for Medical Assistance. Some do not. If it becomes necessary to apply for Medical Assistance for consideration for Charity Care from a hospital, Consumer Health Coalition (412-456-1877) can offer assistance with the application. Or you can call the Allegheny County Public Assistance Office at 412-565-2146 for an application or more information about applying in person or online.

For recently laid off individuals with families who could not extend health insurance through COBRA as it was too expensive (about $1,000 a month or more for family coverage) a possible option would be to apply for Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) for the children in the family. The adults could try to apply for a bare bones health insurance policy with high deductibles that would provide coverage for what is termed catastrophic events such as an accident or major illness requiring hospitalization. This kind of health insurance usually does not cover prescriptions or office visits, but it can provide a safety net that could prevent a lien being placed against a home due to a large hospital bill.

For assistance with applying for CHIP call 1-800-986-KIDS or go to <http://www.chipcoverspakids.com/>

For assistance with finding a high deductible catastrophic policy, contact Consumer Health Coalition which is listed below under Consumer Health Care Advocacy Organizations. The recently passed Stimulus package may provide some subsidy for COBRA health insurance extension payments, but details were not available at the time this guide was revised.

Adult Basic

This is basic health insurance through the state, which currently has a waiting list for enrollment. However, it is worth applying to get on the waiting list, especially if you are in a long term situation that makes it unlikely that you will get health insurance on your own or through an employer. Adult basic does not cover prescriptions. Because the waiting list is so long, this basic insurance can be purchased for around $320.00/month for a single individual, which might be an option for someone with a chronic condition or preexisting problem who is priced out of a private, individual plan. For more information about eligibility criteria and how to apply, call 1-800-462-2742 or www.compass.state.pa.us

Medical Assistance for Workers with Disabilities (MAWD)

This program may provide health insurance for individuals with illness or disability. In some situations recipients of Social Security Disability may qualify for this program, which can cover the gap between the end of employer sponsored health insurance and the beginning of Medicare. Call Consumer Health Coalition (412-456-1877) for more information about eligibility criteria or for help with the application process.

Charity Care

Pittsburgh area hospitals and their affiliated practices usually have charity care programs. As a rule, applicants are required to apply for Medical Assistance first and provide documentation of income and household size before they can be considered for charity care. For those seeking charity care, consulting one of the consumer healthcare advocacy organizations listed below may help with the application process.

Consumer Health Care Advocacy Organizations

Consumer Health Coalition

650 Smithfield St. Suite 2130

Pennsylvania Health Law Project - Pittsburgh Office

650 Smithfield St. Suite 2130

Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Toll Free Helpline 1-800-274-3258

<http://www.phlp.org/>

Pennsylvania Health Law Project (PHLP) is a statewide legal center whose mission is to provide legal advice, assistance and representation to low income, elderly and persons with disabilities having problems with obtaining health insurance or accessing healthcare. They operate a toll-free Helpline Mon.-Fri. 9 am-5 pm. They also have a Pittsburgh office.

Private Walk-in Clinics and Care Centers

Private Retail Clinics

Pharmacies such as Walgreens and CVS have opened walk-in clinics that are open seven days a week in some locations. These clinics are usually staffed by certified nurse practitioners or physician assistants who can provide care for minor conditions such as ear infections, pink eye and so on. They can perform physicals for camp and employment. As a rule, they do not treat children less than 18 months.

In addition, they cannot do stitches for wounds. These clinics take most insurance plans. For those who do not have insurance, the fees can range around $60 and up, with additional fees for lab work, if needed. Payment in the form of a credit card or cash must be provided before service. There is no sliding scale based on income and household size.

These clinics might be an option for a mildly sick child on a weekend when private practices or the clinics listed earlier in this guide are not open. Therefore, the sizeable expense and time involved with a visit to an Emergency Room might be saved. For people who need ongoing care for a chronic condition such as diabetes, they would be better served by becoming patients at one of the clinics listed earlier in this guide. For more information, call or visit:

- CVS – Minute Clinics 1-866-389-2727 or <http://www.minuteclinic.com/en/USA/>
- Walgreens – Take Care Clinics 1-866-Take-Care (825-3227) or <http://www.takecarehealth.com>

Urgent Care Centers

These centers can provide care under certain circumstances to children less than 18 months of age and offers services such as stitches for small wounds, which the retail clinics listed above, cannot do. Treatment at one of these facilities may be far less expensive and time consuming than visiting an emergency room. However, someone with a serious, possibly life threatening injury or illness should go to an emergency room.

Concentra Urgent Care These walk-in centers have a medical doctor on site and can offer care for a range of illness and injuries. Payment in the form of cash, check or credit card is required prior to service. To check on center locations, what care can be provided, what insurance is accepted and fees, go to www.ConcentraUrgentCare.com or call 1-800-418-6497.

MedExpress These urgent care centers provide walk-in care seven days a week for illnesses and injuries. They have medical doctors on site and can do lab work and x-rays. Payment in the form of cash, check or credit card is required prior to service. Medical assistance is not accepted. To find out about center locations, what care can be provided, what insurance is accepted and fees, call 1-304-225-2500 or go to <http://www.greatcarefast.com>

For more information, call or go to their website.

Clinical Research Studies

<http://www.clinicalresearch.pitt.edu/>

Clinical research studies provide a scientific way to develop or improve methods of health care. Some studies are clinical trials to test new medicines, devices or treatments. Other studies use interviews or surveys to understand health or behavior problems. Some studies need healthy people while other studies need people with chronic diseases or certain medical conditions. Whether it is appropriate to enroll in a study is an individual decision. This may be a question to discuss with your medical provider. Read the consent form carefully before signing up for any study. For more information about research studies contact: Office of Clinical Research, Health Sciences at 412-648-2332.
